

The AD ASTRA KANSAS FOUNDATION

in cooperation with the Washburn University Dept. of Physics / Astronomy is sponsoring

The 2015 annual AD ASTRA KANSAS DAY

SPACE CELEBRATION

5:30—8:00

- +Planetarium shows
- +Flight demonstrations
- +Astronomy / Telescope displays
- +Space suit display / info
- +BEST robotics demos
- +Hands-on engineering activities
- +Dream Rocket Project
- +Launch a paper rocket
- +Drawing for science museum ticket.
- +Quizzes, take-aways and more

6:00, 6:30 & 8:30 - Planetarium shows

6:15 & 7:30- Coke geyser demo

6:00 -(until it's gone) Space Ice Cream demo

7:00 -"To the Stars Thru STEM"—for Girl Scouts

8:00 - "Target Pluto" presentation—for All

9:00 -10 Crane Observatory open

SPECIAL PRESENTATION for the Public:

"Target Pluto: A Preview of the New Horizons Spacecraft
Encounter"—Dr. Barbara
Anthony-Twarog, KU Dept. of Physics /Astronomy—
What might be expected? What are we looking for?

FREE- Fun for all ages

Rain or shine

5:30—10 p.m. Saturday, April 25

Stoffer Science Hall
—Washburn University
17th and Washburn, Topeka
Use NORTH parking lot

Many thanks to:
Dr. Barbara Anthony-Twarog
Northeast Kansas Amateur Astronomers League
The Foundation for Aeronautic Education
Washburn University Chemistry Club
Banner Creek Observatory
Wichita Homeschool Kansas BEST robotics
American Assoc. of Civil Engineers / Kansas DOT
Kansas Children's Discovery Center
Dream Rocket Project
K-State Dept. of Electrical, Computer Engineering
Kansas Cosmosphere and Space Center
Washburn University Dept. of Physics / Astronomy
Space Age Publishing Company
Society of Women Engineers / Wichita Chapter

More on the Ad Astra Kansas Foundation, a 501 c3 organization, at www.adastra-ks.org