

The AD ASTRA KANSAS INITIATIVE in cooperation with Washburn University is sponsoring a

SPACE CELEBRATION

9th annual Ad Astra Kansas Day—celebrating science in Kansas

- ✦ Planetarium shows
- ✦ Flight demonstrations
- ✦ Telescope displays
- ✦ Astro-olympic games
- ✦ SKY-Q quiz for all ages
- ✦ Robotics demos
- ✦ Crane Observatory stargazing
- ✦ High-altitude ballooning display
- ✦ Auger North presentation
- ✦ Ad Astra community outreach
- ✦ Hands-on activities, take-aways and more...

FREE- Fun for all ages
Rain or shine

Participants include:
Washburn University Dept. of Physics/Astronomy
Northeast Kansas Amateur Astronomers League
The Foundation for Aeronautic Education
NASA High Energy Astrophysics Educator Program
Wichita State University Dept. of Physics/ Astronomy
Kansas Dept. of Transportation
NearSys
Space Age Publishing Company

5:30—10 p.m. Saturday, April 23

Stoffer Science Hall —Washburn University 17th and Washburn, Topeka

Interested in the Ad Astra Kansas Initiative? Find more info at www.adastra-ks.org