

FEATURE PRESENTATIONS: "Space

Weather Exploration: the Van Allen Radiation Belt Probe—
given by Dr. Jerry Manweiler—longtime NASA co-investigator.

"Elk Creek Observatory to Banner Creek Science Center" —
How an area high school got its own observatory and how it has expanded into a science center—Given by Mike Ford, instrumental in the project from the beginning.

You are invited ★

SCHEDULE OF ACTIVITIES

5:30 to 8:00—

Telescope displays / Flight demos

- ★ Meet Clara Ma—Kansas student who named Curiosity
- Interactive "Eyes on the Solar System"
- Cool Voyager info and activities
- Engineering and other science activities
- Take-aways and more...

6:00 & 7:30 Planetarium show ★

6:15 - Flight demos

6:30 -7:30 "Space" ice cream

7:00 - Elk Creek Observatory to Banner Creek

8:00 - Space Weather Exploration presentation

8:30 -10 Crane Observatory open

FREE- Fun
for all ages

Rain or shine

5:30—10 p.m.

Saturday, April 27

Stoffer Science Hall
Washburn University
17th and Washburn
Topeka

SPONSORS

Ad Astra Kansas Foundation and Washburn University Dept. of Physics/Astronomy