

FEATURE PRESENTATION

“Auger North: a possible new cosmic ray observatory in Kansas”—given by Dr. Nick Solomey of Wichita State University.

You are invited!

SCHEDULE OF ACTIVITIES

5:30 to 8:30—

- ★ Telescope displays
- ★ Flight and robotics demos
- ★ “Eyes on the Solar System” activities
- ★ Engineering activities for kids,
- ★ Sky-Q quiz game
- ★ High-altitude ballooning, and more...

6:00 -7:00 “Space” ice cream ★

6:00 & 8:30 Planetarium show

6:30 & 8:00 “Where are we in the Milky Way (and where is everybody else?)”

7:00 - Auger North presentation

★ 8:30 -10 Crane Observatory open

FREE- Fun
for all ages
Rain or shine

5:30—10 p.m.
Saturday, April 23

Stoffer Science Hall
Washburn University
17th and Washburn
Topeka

Sponsored by The Ad Astra Kansas Initiative and the Washburn University Dept. of Physics/Astronomy